

THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

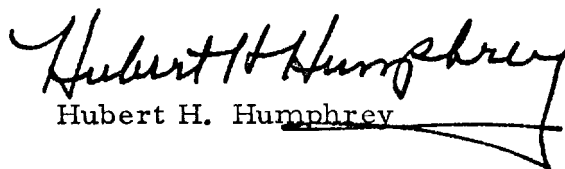

August 13, 1965

Dear Admiral Rayborn:

I would appreciate it if you could arrange to have the necessary clearances granted to my foreign policy assistant, Mr. John E. Rielly, to permit him to handle the intelligence materials that come into my office. To properly assist me in my work in the foreign policy field, it is essential that Mr. Rielly be cleared to handle all the necessary documents in the foreign policy field.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Hubert H. Humphrey

The Honorable William Rayborn
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.
